

March for Life Resources

It is crucial that adult leaders prepare their young people to attend the March for Life. In addition to understanding and being passionate about the right to life, those attending the March should also understand its history and purpose. Ensure that those attending the March for Life know what to expect from the experience. CYM has put together the following resource list to assist you in your preparations:

- Youth Ministry Access has several ready-to-go sessions for high school students. Here are three that we think will work well for preparing your young people for the March for Life:
  - Created By God: Exploring What It Means to Be Pro-Life
  - Womb to Tomb – Protecting the Life and Dignity of All God’s People
  - March for Life: A Faithful Young Citizen’s Response
    - Youth Ministry Access is a subscription-based website. If you do not have a subscription to YMA, contact CYM for details on how to become a member.
- The following movies have pro-life themes and can be shown (in full or in clips) to introduce a discussion around these themes:
  - Juno – Click here for a session based on Juno written by Patrick Donovan
  - Bella – Click here for a session based on Bella by Patrick Donovan
  - Sarah’s Choice (new this fall)
- The Archdiocese of Baltimore Office for Youth and Young Adults has a website full of great resources – check it out here!
- Encourage your young people to participate in the March for Life Student Contest. Find out all of the information here.
- Visit the March for Life website.
- There are many dioceses that make promotional videos for the March for Life. Click here to search ‘march for life’ on You Tube.
